Called Lisa. She faxed over a copy of January rent receipt but it did not say who it was paid to. She also said her home phone will be put in tomorrow. Lisa said she wanted Leigh back today. Caseworker told her that would not happen and that DCFS was going to hold a staffing and then would have a meeting with her so everyone would be on the same page. Lisa argued more saying that she had done everything that Paul had mentioned in court, that were the reasons that Leigh was taken back into custody. Caseworker told Lisa that there would be a staffing and then we would meet with her. Caseworker asked if she was still planning on visiting tomorrow with Jordan, Lisa said that she would not missed it. Lisa is keeping original lawyer, did not pay full retainer for Joy. Policies:

Dispositional hearing. Lisa stated that she had retained another lawyer and that she wanted a continuance. Dispositional hearing rescheduled for January 30th at 15:30. AG informed court that he was taking physical custody of Leigh back today. Judge Johanson said that it was up to the AG. Lisa hurried out of the court and Ira, the cab driver friend, had Leigh in the cab ready to go. Paul Amann, the AG, and Bailif went out the door after Lisa. Caseworker came to the cab also. Lisa was hysterical asking Paul not to do this. Paul told her that she was not complying with the safety plan she had signed, which stated she would have a working phone so caseworker could contact her, and having proof that she has a residence. Lisa gave caseworker receipt for a $1000 money order that she said was to pay January's rent. She also claimed that her bishop had paid her last two rents and she was getting a phone installed in her home on January 17th. Paul told her he was taking Leigh. Lisa started crying and held Leigh tight, telling him that he could not take her. Caseworker told Lisa not to make this harder on Leigh than it had to be. Lisa gave Leigh to Bailif and he took her inside. Lisa slammed the cab door and told Ira that her lawyer would take care of it. Ira was arguing with the caseworker about the service plan. Caseworker went inside the court house and Leigh smiled at her and held out her arms. Caseworker transported Leigh to Christmas Box House. (Lewis, Kellie D 12Mar01)
