Da Ray -

I am formally asking for a "trial home placement" of Jordan during the time his "Foster parents" are in California. He cries the whole visit (Today at 2-3p) because I told him I told Linda Days ago that he couldn't go. He cried when he told me he "didn't want to go to Andrea's." When is anyone going to listen to the wishes of this child - even he knows Andrea doesn't take care of him properly. He cries the whole visit. Please allow me the chance - the ② Chance el was supposed to be given back in March for a trial home placement!! That el didn't get because of his going into the hospital when his foster mother didn't feed him properly.
